PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Kraft Heinz Company (the “Company”) was unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 30, 2019 (the “Q1 Form 10-Q”) by the prescribed due date and has determined that it is unable to file, within the prescribed time period, its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 29, 2019 (the “Q2 Form 10-Q,” and together with the Q1 Form 10-Q, the “Forms 10-Q”) for the reasons described below.

The Company is currently unable to file its Forms 10-Q by the prescribed due date due to the fact that it is continuing to execute and test certain impairment assessment controls in conjunction with its testing of impairment of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets, both as it relates to the first and second quarters of 2019. As more fully disclosed in Item 9A of the Company’s Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2018, management identified a material weakness related to the level of precision used in the review of the allocation of cash flow projections to certain brands used as a basis for performing impairment assessments related to goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets. In connection with its ongoing remediation efforts, the Company has added additional internal control procedures to enhance the level of precision at which its internal controls over financial reporting relating to goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment assessments are performed. Specific to these efforts, the Company is implementing and executing additional procedures to (i) enhance its analysis of forecasted cash flows used in the impairment assessment and (ii) test the accuracy of forecasted cash flow allocations to specific brands. While the Company does not currently expect a material change in the preliminary unaudited amounts disclosed as impairment charges for the first and second quarters of 2019 in the Company’s Form 8-K filed on August 8, 2019, the Company is continuing to execute and test certain impairment assessment controls, which the Company intends to complete prior to the filing its Forms 10-Q for the first and second quarters of 2019. The Company is working diligently to file the Forms 10-Q as promptly as practicable.

Additionally, as previously disclosed in the Company’s Form 8-K filed on July 31, 2019, the Company entered into a Waiver and Consent No. 3 (the “Third Waiver”) with respect to the Senior Credit Facility, pursuant to which they obtained a temporary waiver of compliance by the Company with respect to the requirements to furnish lenders under the Senior Credit Facility copies of the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal quarter ended March 30, 2019. Pursuant to the Third Waiver and in order to remedy its noncompliance, the Company is required to provide condensed consolidated financial statements for its fiscal quarter ended March 30, 2019 no later than August 13, 2019.
