The Kraft Heinz Company (the "Company") is not filing by the prescribed due date its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2018 (the "Form 10-K"). While there can be no assurances, the Company is working to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K on or before the fifteenth calendar day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.

The Company with the assistance of external counsel has been conducting its own rigorous internal investigation into the procurement area as a result of the previously disclosed subpoena received in October 2018 from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. When the results of this investigation have been concluded, the Company will be in a position to file its Form 10-K. At this time the Company does not expect matters subject to the investigation to be material to its current period or any prior period financial statements.

Forward-Looking Statements

This filing contains a number of forward-looking statements. Words such as "expect," "will," "working," and variations of such words and similar future or conditional expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our beliefs and expectations relating to the filing of the Form 10-K and the results of the ongoing review. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future results and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and beyond our control. Important factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, a material delay in the Company's financial reporting, including the possibility that the Company will not be able to file its Form 10-K within the fifteen-day extension permitted by the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and the possibility that the ongoing review may identify errors or control deficiencies in the Company's accounting practices. We disclaim and do not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement in this report, except as required by applicable law or regulation.
