THE KRAFT HEINZ COMPANY

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

Effective as of August 4, 2022

Purpose.
The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of The Kraft Heinz Company (“Kraft Heinz” or the “Company”) will:

1. Identify qualified individuals to become Board members consistent with criteria approved by the Board;

2. Make recommendations to the Board concerning the appropriate size, function, needs and composition of the Board and its committees; and

3. Advise the Board on corporate governance matters, including developing and recommending to the Board Kraft Heinz’s Corporate Governance Guidelines and other corporate governance policies.

Composition.
The Committee will be composed of three or more non-employee directors.

Each Committee member will meet the “independence” requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) and applicable laws, rules, and regulations for governance committee membership, subject to any available exceptions. The Board will determine the independence of each Committee member.

Based upon the recommendation of the Committee, the Board will appoint the members of the Committee meeting these requirements and designate the Committee’s Chair. If the Board does not designate a Committee Chair, the Committee members may designate a Chair by a majority vote of the Committee members. The Board may remove any Committee member.

Meetings and Operations.
The Committee will meet at least four times annually and additionally as often as it deems appropriate to carry out its duties and responsibilities. Meetings of the Committee may be called by any member of the Committee.

The Committee Chair, in consultation with the other Committee members and the Company’s Corporate Secretary, will set meeting agendas.

The Committee may delegate any of its responsibilities to the Chair, another Committee member, or a subcommittee of Committee members, unless prohibited by applicable laws, regulations, or Nasdaq requirements.

The Committee will meet periodically in executive session without management present.
The Committee will report its activities to the Board on a regular basis and make such recommendations with respect to its responsibilities and other matters as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate.

The Corporate Secretary will maintain minutes of the Committee meetings.

The Committee will, at least annually, evaluate its performance and report to the Board on that evaluation. The Committee will also annually review this Charter and recommend to the Board any amendments the Committee deems necessary or appropriate.

Resources and Independent Counsel.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee will have full access to all of Kraft Heinz’s books, records, facilities, and personnel. The Committee will also have the authority to conduct investigations in its areas of authority and responsibility as well as to engage, retain, approve reasonable fees and other retention terms of, and terminate independent counsel and other advisors, including any search firm to assist the Committee in identifying director candidates, in its sole discretion as it determines necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Kraft Heinz will provide for appropriate funding, as reasonably determined by the Committee, for payment of: (i) compensation to any advisors the Committee engages; and (ii) the Committee’s ordinary administrative expenses that are necessary or appropriate to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Authority and Responsibilities:

A. Director Evaluation and Nomination.

1. Periodically review, and recommend to the Board, the characteristics, skills, experience, and other criteria for identifying and evaluating directors.

2. Review the qualifications of candidates for director suggested by Board members, stockholders, management, and others in accordance with criteria that the Board establishes.

3. Consider the performance and suitability of incumbent directors in determining whether to nominate them for re-election or to recommend to the Board their removal.

4. Recommend to the Board a slate of nominees for election or re-election to the Board at each annual meeting of stockholders.

5. Recommend to the Board candidates to be appointed to the Board as necessary to fill vacancies and newly created directorships.

6. Assess and make recommendations to the Board as to the determination of director independence.
B. Board Structure, Meetings, and Evaluation.

1. Make recommendations to the Board concerning the frequency and content of Board meetings.

2. Make recommendations to the Board concerning the size, function, composition, and structure of the Board and its committees, and periodically consider rotation of the Board chairperson and committee members and chairpersons.

3. Make recommendations to the Board regarding selection, tenure, retirement, and diversity policies.

C. Committee Composition.

1. Recommend to the Board directors to serve as members and chairpersons of each committee of the Board, as well as candidates to fill vacancies on any committee.

2. Evaluate any Compensation Committee interlocks among Board members and executive officers.

3. Make determinations as required by applicable laws, regulations, or Nasdaq requirements as to the qualifications of members of the Audit Committee and other committees.

D. Governance and Policy Oversight.

1. Establish policies and procedures for the review, approval, and ratification of related person transactions, as defined in applicable Securities and Exchange Commission rules; review related person transactions; and make recommendations to the Board as to the Committee’s determinations regarding such related person transactions in accordance with the Company’s Related Person Transaction Policy.

3. Review and, if necessary, recommend to the Board changes to the Company’s corporate governance framework, including annual review of the Corporate Governance Guidelines and periodic review of the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws.

4. Administer and, at least annually, review and, if necessary, recommend to the Board changes to Kraft Heinz’s codes of conduct applicable to employees and non-employee directors.

5. Advise and make recommendations to the Board on corporate governance matters, to the extent these matters are not the responsibility of other committees.
6. Develop, recommend to the Board, and oversee an annual self-evaluation process for the Board and its committees.

E. Stockholder Engagement. Oversee and make recommendations to the Board regarding Kraft Heinz’s governance-related engagement with stockholders and proxy-advisory firms.

F. Other Duties and Responsibilities. Perform any other duties and responsibilities that are consistent with the Committee’s purpose, Kraft Heinz’s Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws, and governing law, as the Board or Committee deems necessary or appropriate.
